 4. A will as defined in clause (h) of section 2 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (39 of 1925) including any testamentary deposition whatever name called
 5. ~~Any contract for the sale or conveyance of immovable property or any interest in such property~~

Legal Recognition

Section 4: Legal Recognition of Electronic Records

- Where any law provides that information or any other matter shall be in writing or in the typewritten or printed form, then,
 - notwithstanding anything contained in such law,
 - such requirement shall be deemed to have been satisfied if such information or matter is
 - (a) rendered or made available in an electronic form; and
 - (b) accessible so as to be usable for a subsequent reference

Section 5

Legal recognition of Electronic Signature

- Where any law provides that information or any other matter shall be authenticated by affixing the signature or any document should be signed or bear the signature of any person then,
 - notwithstanding anything contained in such law, such requirement shall be deemed to have been satisfied,
 - if such information or matter is authenticated by means of digital signature affixed in such manner as may be prescribed by the Central Government.
 - Explanation - For the purposes of this section, "Signed", with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions, shall, with reference to a person, mean affixing of his hand written signature or any mark on any document and the expression "Signature" shall be construed accordingly.

Section 3: Authentication of Electronic Records

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section any subscriber may authenticate an electronic record by affixing his Digital Signature

(2) The authentication of the electronic record shall be effected by the use of asymmetric crypto system and hash function which envelop and transform the initial electronic record into another electronic record.

Sec 3..contd

- Explanation - For the purposes of this subsection, "Hash function" means an algorithm mapping or translation of one sequence of bits into another, generally smaller, set known as "Hash Result" such that an electronic record yields the same hash result every time the algorithm is executed with the same electronic record as its input making it computationally infeasible
 - (a) to derive or reconstruct the original electronic record from the hash result produced by the algorithm;
 - (b) that two electronic records can produce the same hash result using the algorithm.

Sec 3..contd

- (3) Any person by the use of a public key of the subscriber can verify the electronic record.
- (4) The private key and the public key are unique to the subscriber and constitute a functioning key pair.

Section 3A: Electronic Signatures

- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, but subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), a subscriber may authenticate any electronic record by such electronic signature or electronic authentication technique which-
- (a) is considered reliable ; and (b) may be specified in the Second Schedule
- (2) For the purposes of this section any electronic signature or electronic authentication technique shall be considered reliable if-
 - (a) the signature creation data or the authentication data are, within the context in which they are used, linked to the signatory or , as the case may be, the authenticator and of no other person;
 - (b) the signature creation data or the authentication data were, at the time of signing, under the control of the signatory or, as the case may be, the authenticator and of no other person;
 - (c) any alteration to the electronic signature made after affixing such signature is detectable
 - (d) any alteration to the information made after its authentication by electronic signature is detectable; and
 - (e) it fulfills such other conditions which may be prescribed.

Digital Signatures- What they are not

- It is not a Scanned form of a Signature
- It is a variable
 - It is document specific

Technology Behind Digital Signatures

- Digital Signature System is built on the foundation of two technologies, Hashing and Asymmetric Crypto System

Digital Signature Definition

- Digital Signature
 - Of a document of a person
 - Is
 - The hash value of the document encrypted with the private key of the person

Digital Signature Certificate

- A Certificate issued by a “Certifying Authority”
 - A Serial Number
 - Certification path
 - Containing the public key with a warranty that the holder of this certificate has a corresponding private key
 - Details of the holder (including the name, email address)
 - Algorithms used for hashing and encryption
 - Path to the Certification revocation register

Digital Certificate..Details

Some more Details

Secure Digital Signature (Notification of October 29, 2004)

- A digital signature shall be deemed to be a secure digital signature for the purposes of the Act if the following procedure has been applied to it, namely:-
 - (a) that the smart card or hardware token, as the case may be, with cryptographic module in it, is used to create the key pair;
 - (b) that the private key used to create the digital signature always remains in the smart card or hardware token as the case may be;
 - (c) that the hash of the content to be signed is taken from the host system to the smart card or hardware token and the private key is used to create the digital signature and the signed hash is returned to the host system;

Secure Digital Signature (Notification of October 29, 2004)..contd

- (d) that the information contained in the smart card or hardware token, as the case may be, is solely under the control of the person who is purported to have created the digital signature;
- (e) that the digital signature can be verified by using the public key listed in the Digital Signature Certificate issued to that person;
- (f) that the standards referred to in rule 6 of the Information Technology (Certifying Authorities) Rules, 2000 have been complied with, in so far as they relate to the creation, storage and transmission of the digital signature; and
- (g)that the digital signature is linked to the electronic record in such a manner that if the electronic record was altered the digital signature would be invalidated.

Certifying Authorities

Law of Cyber Contracts

Section 10A Validity of contracts formed through electronic means

- Where in a contract formation,
 - the communication of proposals,
 - the acceptance of proposals,
 - the revocation of proposals and acceptances,
 - as the case may be,
 - are expressed in electronic form or by means of an electronic record,
 - such contract shall not be deemed to be unenforceable solely on the ground that such electronic form or means was used for that purpose.

Attribution

- Sec 11
 - Attribution of Electronic Records
 - An electronic record shall be attributed to the originator
 - (a) if it was sent by the originator himself;
 - (b) by a person who had the authority to act on behalf of the originator in respect of that electronic record; or
 - (c) by an information system programmed by or on behalf of the originator to operate automatically

Time and Place of Contract

Determined by the completion of Contractual obligations or as otherwise specified

Time Of Despatch [sec 13(1)]

- Save as otherwise agreed to between the originator and the addressee, the dispatch of an electronic record occurs when it enters a computer resource outside the control of the originator.

Time Of Receipt [Sec 13(2)]

- Save as otherwise agreed between the originator and the addressee, the time of receipt of an electronic record shall be determined as follows, namely –
 - (a) if the addressee has designated a computer resource for the purpose of receiving electronic records
 - (i) receipt occurs at the time when the electronic record enters the designated computer resource; or
 - (ii) if the electronic record is sent to a computer resource of the addressee that is not the designated computer resource, receipt occurs at the time when the electronic record is retrieved by the addressee;
 - (b) if the addressee has not designated a computer resource along with specified timings, if any, receipt occurs when the electronic record enters the computer resource of the addressee.

Place of Despatch [Sec 13(3)]

- Save as otherwise agreed between the originator and the addressee, an electronic record is deemed to "be dispatched at the place where the originator has his place of business, and is deemed to be received at the place where the addressee has his place of business.

Place of Despatch [Sec 13 (4)]

- The provisions of sub-section (2) shall apply notwithstanding that the place where the computer resource is located may be different from the place where the electronic record is deemed to have been received under sub-section (3).

Place of Despatch [Sec 13 (5)]

- For the purposes of this section - (a)if the originator or the addressee has more than one place of business, the principal place of business shall be the place of business;

 - ICICI Bank, HDFC Bank, NPCI, Bank of Baroda, Union Bank, PNB declared protected systems recently

Vicarious Liabilities

Sec 85: Offences by Companies.

- (1)Where a person committing a contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule, direction or order made there under is a Company,
- every person who, at the time the contravention was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of business of the company as well as the company, shall be guilty of the contravention and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:
 - Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to punishment if he proves that the contravention took place without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent such contravention.

Sec 85..contd

- (2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where a contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule, direction or order made there under has been committed by a company and it is proved that the contravention has taken place
- with the consent or connivance of, or
- is attributable to any neglect
- on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of the contravention and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
 - Explanation- For the purposes of this section
(i) "Company" means any Body Corporate and includes a Firm or other Association of individuals; and
(ii) "Director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm

Sec 79: Exemption from liability of intermediary in certain cases

- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force but subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3), an intermediary shall not be liable for any third party information, data, or communication link hosted by him
- (2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply if-
 - (a) the function of the intermediary is limited to providing access to a communication system over which information made available by third parties is transmitted or temporarily stored; or
 - (b) the intermediary does not-
 - (i) initiate the transmission,
 - (ii) select the receiver of the transmission, and
 - (iii) select or modify the information contained in the transmission
 - (c) the intermediary observes due diligence while discharging his duties under this Act and also observes such other guidelines as the Central Government may prescribe in this behalf (Inserted Vide ITAA 2008)

- (3) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply if-
- (a) the intermediary has conspired or abetted or aided or induced whether by threats or promise or otherwise in the commission of the unlawful act
- (b) upon receiving actual knowledge, or on being notified by the appropriate Government or its agency that any information, data or communication link residing in or connected to a computer resource controlled by the intermediary is being used to commit the unlawful act, the intermediary fails to expeditiously remove or disable access to that material on that resource without vitiating the evidence in any manner
 - .Explanation:- For the purpose of this section, the expression "third party information" means any information dealt with by an intermediary in his capacity as an intermediary

Implications of Sec 85

- Where a person committing a contravention is a company, the vicarious liability may extend to its officials and Directors unless they prove
 - lack of knowledge and
 - due diligence
- When a computer resource or an employee of a company has committed the contravention, it may be possible to interpret that the contravention was committed by the Company.
 - Hence vicarious liability may arise on account of any of the penal sections of the Act including Sections 65, 66, 67 etc

Implications of Sec 85

- As a measure of abundant caution therefore every company should undertake such steps as are considered necessary for preventing contraventions with the use of any computer resource belonging to the Company
 - This requires Cyber Law compliance audit
 - Implementation of risk mitigation efforts suggested in the audit
 - Certification of CyLawCom audit

Seven basic compliance requirements

- 1) Designate a Cyber Law Compliance officer
- 2) Initiate training of employees on Cyber Law Compliance
- 3) Introduce sanction procedures in HR policy for non compliance
- 4) use authentication procedures suggested in law
- 5) Maintain data retention as suggested under Section 67C
- 6) Identify and initiate safeguard requirements indicated under Sections 69 and 69A, 69B
- 7) Initiate global standards of data privacy on collection, retention, access, deletion etc
